

Research Fellow in Interventional Gastroenterology

DESCRIPTION

Company: IRCAD was created in 1994 in Strasbourg by Professor Jacques Marescaux. It is an internationally renowned research and training center. The Institute welcomes every year more than 8,000 healthcare professionals to provide them with state-of-the-art training in minimally invasive surgery, digestive endoscopy, and endoscopic ultrasound (EUS), as well as other specialties.

Contact info: communication@ircad.fr

Place of employment: 1 place de l'Hôpital, 67100 Strasbourg, France
Within the University Hospital of Strasbourg

Compensation: To be defined depending on profile

Contract duration: 1 year

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Fellowship under the supervision of Prof. Guido Costamagna, Prof. Marc Giovannini, and Prof. Cristiano Spada.

- Medical degree
- Specialization and accredited training in interventional gastroenterology and GI endoscopy
- Experience in medical research
- Fluency in written and spoken English

ASSIGNMENTS

- Conducting research activities focusing on innovative/advanced interdisciplinary diagnostic and therapeutic procedures
- Evaluating non-animal models and novel materials in vivo
- Creating educational e-learning modules on WebSurg and assisting in the editorial process
- Participating in IRCAD training courses for the hands-on sessions

ircad
France

www.ircad.fr